Permission to extend, to re-engage, to transfer, or to continue in the service beyond 21 years shall, on and after 1st October, 1906, only be given if the soldier accepts the conditions in force for proficiency pay; pending classification of proficiency pay, he shall, if in receipt of service pay, continue to draw it.

AND WHEREAS WE deem it expedient to assimilate so far as possible the conditions under which service pay shall be drawn by soldiers enlisted before 1st October, 1906, to the conditions prescribed by this Warrant;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that on and after 1st October, 1906, all soldiers drawing service pay shall be subject to the following conditions:—

1. In the case of men who qualify for service pay on and after 1st October, 1906, the qualifying period shall be calculated without deduction on account of periods of imprisonment, detention or absence. Article 1084c of the Warrant shall be cancelled.

2. The following shall be substituted for Article 1084c of the Pay Warrant:—

3. The following shall be substituted for Article 1084c of the Pay Warrant:—

1084c. If a non-commissioned officer or soldier is certified to be suffering from venereal disease or its effects, or from the results of alcoholism, he shall forfeit service pay, whether Class I. or Class II., from the date inclusive from which such inefficiency became apparent, but he may have such rate of pay restored to him, at the discretion of the officer commanding his unit, from the date when he is certified by the medical officer to have regained his full efficiency.

4. No reduction of service pay shall in future be made on account of misconduct. Article 1084c of the Pay Warrant shall be cancelled.

5. A soldier of any arm who enlisted or extended his service before 1st October, 1906, when recalled to the colours on mobilization, shall, if he was in receipt of service pay before transfer to the Reserve, resume the rate of service pay which he was drawing, pending classification, or, if he was not in receipt of service pay, shall, until classified, draw Class II. service pay. He shall, from the date of resuming service pay, be subject to the conditions which are in force regarding it at the time of resumption or are subsequently introduced.

6. IS OUR FURTHER WILL AND PLEASURE that the issue of specialists' pay under Article 856 of Our Warrant, dated 26th June, 1906, shall, for soldiers other than Maltese or non-Europeans, be cancelled from a date to be fixed by Our Army Council; and that the conditions under which messing and kit allowance is issued shall be read as follows:—

(d) A commanding officer shall have power to withhold messing and kit allowance until he is satisfied that the recruit has made satisfactory progress.

The periods of enlistment approved are, until further notice, those laid down in the Recruiting Regulations as modified by Special Army Order of 3rd August, 1906: the periods of extension approved are, until further notice, those laid down in paragraph 1744 (a), King's Regulations. INSTRUCTIONS, REGULATIONS, &c.

A.O. 233, 1906.—*Organization of the General Staff.

The General Staff of the Army falls into two principal divisions, viz.—

- (a.) The General Staff at Army Head-quarters.
- (b.) The General Staff in commands and districts.

The functions of the former are to advise on the strategical distribution of the Army, to supervise the education of officers, and the training and preparation of the Army for war, to study military schemes, offensive and defensive, to collect and collate military intelligence, to direct the general policy in Army matters, and to ensure the continuity of action in the execution of that policy.

The functions of the latter are to assist the officers on whose staffs they are serving, in promoting military efficiency, especially in regard to the education of officers and the training of the troops, and to aid them in carrying out the policy prescribed by Army Head-quarters.

With these objects in view, the General Staff will be drawn from the officers of the Army who may be considered most likely to prove capable of forming a school of progressive military thought.

The detailed duties which fall to the lot of the General Staff, in furtherance of these objects, are enumerated in Appendix A (page 1758).

The establishment of the General Staff, exclusive of India, i.e., the detailed list of those posts which will constitute the General Staff appointment of the Army, is given in Appendix B (page 1759).

Appointments to the posts specified in Appendix B will be made from a special list of officers considered well fitted for such employment, termed "The General Staff List."

This list will be drawn up and from time to time revised by the Army Council, in consultation with the War Office Board, and with the Commander-in-Chief in India.

The list will not be published.

9. As a general rule, an officer will not be eligible to have his name placed on the General Staff list unless he holds a Staff College certificate, and unless he has at least 8 years' service. But the guiding principle in the selection of officers for this list will be the possession of those qualifications which render them fitted for the performance of the duties of the General Staff.

Of these qualifications, experience on the administrative staff, though not indispensable, will not be so regarded.

10. Officers at present occupying posts specified in Appendix B will not necessarily be selected for the General Staff list.

Officers performing duties other than those detailed in Appendix B are not thereby debarred from selection for the General Staff list.

11. At home and in the colonies appointments to the General Staff will be made by the Secretary of State for War from the General Staff List after taking the advice of the Chief of the General Staff. Such appointments, except in the case of staff captains and brigade-majors, will be submitted to the King for His Majesty's approval.

In India such appointments will be made by the Commander-in-Chief in India under Indian Army Regulations.

12. All appointments to the General Staff will be for 4 years, after which an officer if below the rank of substantive lieutenant-colonel will return to regimental duty for a period of not less than one year. In exceptional cases the 4 years' tenure may be extended in the interests of the service, and under similar exceptional conditions a fresh appointment may be made irrespective of the time already spent upon the staff or in the performance of other duties.

13. All first appointments to the General Staff will be on probation for the first year. If at the conclusion of such probationary period an officer is retained in his General Staff appointment, his tenure of 4 years will include the probationary period, and will not be in addition to it. An officer below the rank of lieutenant-colonel who does not hold a Staff College certificate will, after he has completed the 4 years' tenure of his first General Staff appointment, be sent for one year to the Staff College, where he shall be admitted without entrance examination.

14. When an officer vacates a General Staff appointment, his retention on the General Staff list will be subject to the decision of the Secretary of State advised by the Chief of the General Staff, or of the Commander-in-Chief in India, as the case may be.

15. In addition to the General Staff appointments specified in Appendix B, Officers may be attached to the General Staff at Army Head-quarters, and occasionally also at the headquarters of commands and elsewhere in excess of the establishment specified in that appendix.

16. Approval service on the General Staff will be recognised by accelerated promotion. Such accelerated promotion will be bestowed in ordinary cases in the form of a brevet up to the rank of lieutenant-colonel, and subject to that rank by selection for the rank of substantive colonel.

- (b.) - (c.) Recommendations to the Secretary of State for the appointment of officers to staff and departmental posts will be made by the member of Council concerned. These appointments are distributed as follows :—

* Issued as a Special Army Order, dated 14th September, 1906.

A.O. 235, 1906.—*Reduction in Establishments.

His Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the following battalions of the Foot Guards and Infantry of the Line being reduced :—

Foot Guards.

3rd Bn. Coldstream Guards.

3rd Bn. Scots Guards.

Infantry of the Line.

3rd and 4th Bns. Northumberland Fusiliers.

3rd and 4th Bns. Royal Warwickshire Regiment.

3rd and 4th Bns. Lancashire Fusiliers.

3rd and 4th Bns. Manchester Regiment.

These reductions will be carried into effect under instructions that will be issued from time to time. The reduction of the 3rd Bn. Coldstream Guards will be postponed for the present.

A.O. 236, 1906.—†Office work of Units and of Record Offices.

It has been decided to adopt in time of war a system of office work whereby an officer commanding a unit in the field will, as far as possible, be relieved of clerical work by the officer in charge of a base record office. Similarly, in peace, an officer in charge of records will relieve the officers commanding the units which are affiliated to his record office of clerical work that can be carried out in the record office.

The principles on which office work should be based in time of peace are as follows :—

- (i.) The assimilation, as far as possible, of peace conditions to those of war.
- (ii.) The relief from responsibility for clerical work of officers commanding units which will allow them more time and more opportunity for the exercise of their proper functions of command.
- (iii.) The compilation of statistical information by an officer specially appointed to maintain the records of the units affiliated to his office.

To give effect to these principles, the following procedure will be adopted :—

I.—Orders.

- (i.) The orders of a unit will be divided into two parts. Part I. will deal with training, manoeuvres, parades, and matters which do not affect a soldier's pay, service, or documents. Part II. with matters which affect a soldier's pay, service, or documents.
- (ii.) Part II. of orders will be framed in the identical words in which the entry is to be made in original and duplicate attestations. A specimen table showing the method of framing Part II. of orders is given in Appendix A. (Not printed in Army List).
- (iii.) Copies of Part II. of orders (or a notification that none have been issued) will be sent weekly, and on the last day of each month, to the officer in charge of records, who will retain them for reference. In the case of units at home the weekly copies will be despatched so as to reach the record office on Mondays.
- (iv.) Each issue of each Part of orders will be numbered consecutively, commencing on the 1st January of each year.
- (v.) A box file (Army Book 180) will be used by officers in charge of records and commanding officers for filing these orders. Parts I. and II. will be kept in separate files. Army Book 129 will cease to be used for this purpose. Commanding officers will review the orders annually, and any matter affecting the permanent orders of a unit will be noted in Army Book 127.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss S. Anderson, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement. The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each session to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Soldier and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to relieve the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives, as of right, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for the child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in the event of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased officers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
